JANE NORTH IS APPOINTED REGIONAL ATTORNEY OF NLRB WINSTON-SALEM, NC OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Jane North as Regional Attorney of the NLRB's Regional Office in Winston-Salem, NC (Region 11). Ms. North had been the Deputy Regional Attorney in the Winston-Salem Office prior to her appointment. In her new position, she will be responsible for the supervision of legal work in cases arising under the National Labor Relations Act in Region 11, which services North Carolina, South Carolina, Southwest Virginia, four counties in West Virginia and the city of Bristol, Tennessee.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg noted:

Throughout her career, Ms. North has demonstrated a strong commitment to the principles of the Act and has worked diligently to protect them. She is a gifted attorney and manager who has a well deserved reputation for her legal skills. The agency is very fortunate to have Ms. North serving in this important position.

Ms. North earned her B.A. degree from Eckerd College in 1972 and subsequently attended the Vanderbilt University Divinity School. She received her J.D. degree from the University of Tennessee College of Law in 1984, graduating magna cum laude and Order of the Coif. After being a law clerk for a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and then engaging in the private practice of law, Ms. North began her career with the Agency as a field attorney in the Winston-Salem office in 1988. She was promoted to Supervisory Attorney in 2000 and Deputy Regional Attorney in 2002.
